

Jewish Senior Life hosted a Sweetheart Celebration for its more than 50 couples residing at the Jewish Home on Feb. 12. The event had wine, chocolate and musical entertainment by Uptown Groove. PHOTOS PROVIDED

Jewish Home hosts Sweetheart Celebration

Jewish Senior Life celebrated love and honored for Jewish Home of Rochester couples with a Sweetheart Celebration on Feb. 12.

The couples enjoyed a festive afternoon of wine, chocolate and musical entertainment by Uptown Groove.

"This event is a special celebration for our couples," said Meghan Bevins, director of recreation therapy at the Jewish Home. "We plan many social and cultural activities for our residents to enjoy, and this particular event is an example of the care we take to really get to know each of our residents on a personal level. It's rare for relationships to last upwards of five decades and we all can learn a lot from these couples that have stuck

The Sweetheart Celebration gave Jewish Home residents an opportunity to create new memories with their loved ones during an afternoon of chocolate, wine and music on Feb. 12.

it out through thick and thin."

The Jewish Home is home to more than 50 couples. Events like the Sweetheart Celebration give residents an opportunity to create new memories with their loved ones.

For more information, visit jewishseniorlife.org.

Jewish Senior Life celebrated couples with a Sweetheart celebration on Feb. 12.